The 30-Minute One-Call Close Framework

Every great sales call follows a structure. Without one, you ramble. With one, you close. This is the exact 30-minute framework used by top closers. Memorise it. Practise it. Use it on every call.

→ The Full Timeline

0:00-5:00 Opening & Rapport

Build trust. Set frame. Get permission to ask questions. Disarm the 'about to be pitched' tension.

5:00-15:00 Discovery & Diagnosis

Ask deep questions. Identify their REAL problem. Make them feel heard. Build the case for why they need help.

15:00-20:00 Pitch (The Solution)

Present YOUR specific solution tied to THEIR specific problem. Use their language. Show case studies. Build conviction.

20:00-25:00 Pricing & The Close

Present price confidently. Ask for the decision. Handle objections in real time. Get to a yes or a clear no.

25:00-30:00 Next Steps & Onboarding

If yes: payment link, kickoff scheduling, immediate momentum. If no: book follow-up or walk away.

→ Phase 1: Opening & Rapport (Minutes 0-5)

Goal: Build trust. Disarm tension. Set frame for the call.

OPENING SCRIPT EXAMPLE

YOU: Hey [Name] — how's it going?

PROSPECT: Good, thanks. How are you?

YOU: Doing well. Hey before we dive in — I want to make sure this is a good use of your time. Did you have anything specific you wanted to cover today, or should I drive the conversation?

PROSPECT: Yeah you can drive it.

YOU: Cool. Here's how I'll run the call: I'll ask you 5-10 questions about your business — get a real understanding of what you're trying to do. Then if I think I can help, I'll lay out exactly how we work and what it costs. If not, I'll tell you straight up. Sound good?

WHY THIS OPENING WORKS

It (1) shows respect for their time, (2) sets YOU as the leader of the call, (3) makes it clear you'll qualify them OUT if not a fit, (4) reduces their defensiveness because you've framed it as exploratory.

→ Phase 2: Discovery & Diagnosis (Minutes 5-15)

Goal: Understand them deeply. Identify pain. Build the case for change. This is where you spend 50% of the call. Talk 20%, listen 80%.

QUESTION 1

Business Context

'Walk me through your business — what do you do, how long, what's the current setup?'
Let them talk for 2-3 min uninterrupted.

QUESTION 2

Current State

'What does a typical month look like for you right now in terms of revenue and lead flow?'
Get specifics. Numbers.

QUESTION 3

Current Stack

'How are you currently getting clients? Walk me through your lead sources.' Tells you what's working/not working.

QUESTION 4

Goals

'Where do you want to be in 90 days from now?' Forces them to articulate ambition.
Reveals what 'success' looks like to them.

QUESTION 5

The Gap

'So you're at [current state] and you want to be at [goal] — what do you think is the biggest thing in the way?' THEIR answer tells you their primary objection in advance.

QUESTION 6

Past Attempts

'What have you tried before to fix this?' Tells you what NOT to pitch. Also reveals their sophistication level.

QUESTION 7

The Cost Of Inaction

'If nothing changes over the next 6 months, what does that look like for your business?'
Crucial. Makes them feel the pain of staying still.

QUESTION 8

Decision Process

'Are you the sole decision-maker on something like this, or is there a partner/spouse you'd want to loop in?' Reveals decision dynamics BEFORE the close.

→ Phase 3: The Pitch (Minutes 15-20)

Goal: Show your solution as the perfect bridge from their pain to their goal. Use THEIR language.
Reference their answers throughout.

PITCH TRANSITION SCRIPT

YOU: Okay, based on what you've told me — I think I can help. Want me to walk you through exactly how this would work for you?

PROSPECT: Yes.

YOU: Cool. So you said your biggest issue is [their stated problem]. And you want to be at [their stated goal] in [timeframe]. Here's the system we'd put in place...

[Walk through your offer with their context woven in]

→ Phase 4: Pricing & The Close (Minutes 20-25)

Goal: Present price confidently. Ask for the decision. Don't dance around it.

PRICING & CLOSE SCRIPT

YOU: So the investment for this is [setup fee] upfront + [per-appointment cost] per shown appointment. The setup gets us live in 14 days. The per-appointment model means you only pay when we deliver.

YOU: Based on what we discussed, this would be a great fit. Want to get started?

[Then SHUT UP. Let them respond. Don't fill silence.]

→ Phase 5: Next Steps (Minutes 25-30)

IF YES

Lock In Momentum

'Awesome. I'll send the payment link now to your phone. Once that's done, we'll book your onboarding call for [day] and start the build immediately. Sound good?' Send link DURING the call.

IF MAYBE

Book A Decision Call

'Totally understand wanting to think. Let's book a follow-up for Thursday at 2pm — you can come back with any questions and we'll lock it in then. Cool?' Get back on the calendar.

IF NO

Walk Away Cleanly

'No worries — appreciate you being upfront. Mind sharing what's the main reason? Helps me understand if there's a better fit later.' Get the real reason. Then end positively.

→ The Time Discipline

STAY ON SCHEDULE

If you're at minute 15 and still in discovery, you're behind. Cut a question. Pull forward. Better to close in 25 minutes than to ramble for 45 and lose the deal. Discipline = closes.

→ What This Framework Replaces

OLD WAY

- Rambling intro
- Pitching too early
- No clear structure
- Avoid pricing question
- Vague close attempt
- Hope for the sale

NEW WAY

- 5-min disarming opener
- 10-min deep discovery
- 5-min targeted pitch
- Confident pricing
- Direct ask for decision
- Lock in momentum
