LESSON

Objections Aren't Endings. They're Buying Signals.

When a prospect raises an objection, they're TELLING you what's stopping them from buying.

That's gold. Now you know exactly what to address. The framework: acknowledge → reframe → re-close. Here are the top 10 objections with exact scripts.

→ The Universal Objection Framework

STEP 1

Acknowledge

'I hear you' / 'That's fair' / 'Totally get it.' NEVER 'But...' immediately. Acknowledge first.

STEP 2

Clarify

'Help me understand — when you say [their objection], what specifically?' Surfaces the REAL concern.

STEP 3

Reframe

Position differently. Show new angle. Use proof or logic to change the frame.

STEP 4

Re-Close

Ask for the decision again. Different close technique than before.

→ Objection 1: 'It's Too Expensive'

RESPONSE SCRIPT

YOU: I hear you — it's a real number. Help me understand though, expensive compared to what?

PROSPECT: Compared to what I was hoping to spend.

YOU: Got it. What were you hoping?

PROSPECT: Like £500-£1,000.

YOU: Right — and at £500-£1,000 you'd get someone running a few ads and praying. We charge what we charge because we build the full system, run it, and you only pay performance fees when we deliver appointments. The math is different. £2K to get to £15K/month in new revenue is a great trade. Want me to walk you through how it would pay back?

→ Objection 2: 'Let Me Think About It'

RESPONSE SCRIPT

YOU: Totally fair — what specifically do you need to think about?

PROSPECT: Just the investment really.

YOU: Got it. So it's a price question — not a fit question or a trust question?

PROSPECT: Yeah, mainly the price.

YOU: Cool — let me ask you this. If we removed the price from the equation — pretend it was free for a second — would you want this system in your business?

PROSPECT: Of course.

YOU: Right. So it's just confirming the math works. Let's run it together — at 5 shown appointments per week, your average ticket of £3,500, 30% close rate... [walk them through the ROI math live]. So actually £2K to make £15K — does that work?

THE 'THINK ABOUT IT' TRAP

Never accept 'I'll think about it' at face value. 90% of the time, it means they have a SPECIFIC concern they're not voicing. Your job: surface it. 'What specifically?' is your magic phrase.

→ Objection 3: 'I Need To Talk To My Partner / Spouse'

RESPONSE SCRIPT

YOU: Totally — important decision. Quick question though — if your partner was here right now, what do you think they'd say?

PROSPECT: Honestly? They'd probably want to do it but ask about the cost.

YOU: Got it — so the concern would be the investment. Same as us just now. Let's do this — book a 15-min follow-up tomorrow at this time, bring your partner on the call. I'll re-walk the math and we lock it in then. Cool?

[Book follow-up immediately. Get it on calendar.]

PREVENTION

Best handled BEFORE pitch with Q9 from discovery: 'Are you the sole decision-maker?' If they say 'I need to talk to my partner,' you've trapped yourself. Ask upfront.

→ Objection 4: 'I've Been Burned By Agencies Before'

RESPONSE SCRIPT

YOU: I'm sorry to hear that — happens way too much in this space. What went wrong with the last agency?

PROSPECT: They took my money, didn't deliver, and went silent.

YOU: That's brutal. And it's exactly why we built our model the way we did. Most agencies charge £2-5K/month flat regardless of what they deliver. We charge a setup fee + only get paid when we deliver an appointment. So we don't make money unless YOU make money. If we suck — you stop paying after the setup. That's the safety. Want to start?

→ Objection 5: 'I'm Already Working With Someone'

RESPONSE SCRIPT

YOU: Cool — what kind of results are they getting you?

PROSPECT: They're alright. Not amazing but okay.

YOU: Got it. 'Alright but not amazing' is a yellow flag. If they were crushing it for you, you wouldn't have booked this call. So the real question is — are you ready to upgrade, or are you trying to stick it out?

PROSPECT: Honestly I'd love to upgrade but I don't want to burn bridges.

YOU: Makes sense. Let's do this — we can start our setup while they're still running. You see results from both. After 30 days, you decide who stays. Want to go that route?

→ Objection 6: 'I Don't Have Time Right Now'

RESPONSE SCRIPT

YOU: I get that — you're busy. That's actually exactly why this works for you. The whole point is we handle everything — you don't need time. The only thing required from you is taking the appointments we book. That's a 30-min phone call per appointment. Are you saying you don't have time to take phone calls about new business?

PROSPECT: Well no, I have time for that.

YOU: Right. So 'no time' isn't really the issue. What is?

→ Objection 7: 'Send Me More Info'

RESPONSE SCRIPT

YOU: Happy to. What specifically do you want to see?

PROSPECT: Just whatever you've got, case studies, pricing.

YOU: Got it. Here's the thing — I can send you 20 pages, but it'll say the same thing I just walked you through. The real question is: based on what we covered, do you think this would work for your business?

PROSPECT: Yeah, probably.

YOU: Cool. So info-gathering is just a delay tactic. Let's skip it. What's the real concern?

→ Objection 8: 'Can You Guarantee Results?'

RESPONSE SCRIPT

YOU: Great question. Honest answer: no — and you should run from anyone who guarantees a specific number. What I CAN guarantee is that we'll build the system, run the ads, and book appointments. The conversion to closed jobs is partly on us, partly on you. Here's the safety though — you only pay £147 per APPOINTMENT WE BOOK. So you can't lose money on appointments that don't happen.

[This honesty actually INCREASES trust.]

→ Objection 9: 'Why Are You Different From Other Agencies?'

RESPONSE SCRIPT

YOU: Three things mainly. One — we only charge when we deliver an appointment, not a flat retainer. Two — we specialise in [their niche], so we know exactly what works in your industry, not generic marketing. Three — you keep ownership of everything: the ads, the funnel, the data. If you leave, you take it all. Most agencies hold that hostage. Make sense?

→ Objection 10: 'I Want To Wait Until [X Happens]'

Variants: 'Wait until next quarter,' 'Wait until I hire someone,' 'Wait until busy season ends.'

RESPONSE SCRIPT

YOU: I hear you. Let me ask though — if you wait until [X], how does that solve the lead problem you have right now?

PROSPECT: Well it doesn't, but I'll have more bandwidth.

YOU: Right. So you're delaying solving a problem because of timing. Every month you wait costs you another £15K in revenue we could be generating. Want to wait 3 months and lose £45K, or want to start now and have more revenue to handle [X] when it comes?

→ Objection Bonus: 'I Need To See Results First'

RESPONSE SCRIPT

YOU: Of course. So would I. Here's the thing — the setup fee covers the build. Results show up in weeks 2-4 once ads are live. You'll see appointments rolling in. The £147 per appointment only fires when we actually deliver — so you're literally already seeing results before you pay anything beyond setup. Make sense?

→ What To Do When Objections Keep Coming

THE 3-OBJECTION RULE

Handle 3 objections, then close. If they raise a 4th, they're not buying. 'Look — I've answered the price, the timing, and the trust concern. If you're still saying no, that's okay. But let's be honest with each other — what's really going on?' Often surfaces the real reason and revives the deal.

→ The Walk-Away Power Move

Sometimes the most powerful close is being willing to NOT close:

WALK-AWAY SCRIPT

YOU: Honestly Mike, I'm not sure this is the right fit for you right now. You seem hesitant on multiple fronts. We work best with people who are 100% ready to invest in scaling. If you're not there yet, that's totally fine — better to know now. Maybe revisit in 6 months once you're ready?
[80% of the time, this triggers the prospect to suddenly want it.]

→ The Objection Tracking Sheet

After every call, log:

POST-CALL NOTES

- ✓ What objection did they raise?
- ✓ How did I handle it?
- ✓ Did I close them after?
- ✓ What would I do differently next time?
- ✓ Update your personal objection script weekly
