The Follow-Up Goldmine

After your discovery call, prospects fall into 3 buckets: closed, lost, and undecided. The undecided bucket is where most of your future revenue lives — and it's where most agencies completely drop the ball.

THE STAT

60% of B2B sales happen after the 5th follow-up touchpoint. Most agencies follow up 1-2 times then give up. This is why your competitors are losing — and why disciplined follow-up doubles your close rate without any extra leads.

→ The 3 Prospect Buckets After A Call

BUCKET 1

Closed (Bought On The Call)

Skip to onboarding. Send welcome materials. Lock in start date. Different workflow.

Lost (Hard No)

They said no clearly. Don't push. Drop them into a long-term nurture sequence — re-engage in 60-90 days. We cover this in PDF 13.

BUCKET 3

Undecided (Maybe / Let Me Think)

This is the gold. They didn't say no — they didn't say yes. The follow-up sequence in this PDF is for them.

→ The 7-Touch Follow-Up Sequence

Day 0 Call Ends

If undecided: 'I'll send you a quick recap and the next steps. Talk soon.' Don't over-promise. Set expectations.

Day 0 (1 hr) Recap Email + Loom

Send a recap of what you discussed. Include 1-2 case studies. Attach a short Loom video walking through the proposal.

Day 1 SMS Check-In

'Hey [Name], any questions after our call? Happy to jump on a quick 10-min follow-up if useful.'

Day 3 Value-Add Email

Send something genuinely useful related to their niche (article, video, framework). NO pitch. Just value.

Day 5 Case Study Email

Send a fresh case study or recent client win specifically in their niche. 'Thought you'd want to see this.'

Day 8 Direct Ask SMS

'Hey [Name] — circling back. Where's your head at on this? Ready to start, need more time, or not a fit?' Force a decision.

Day 12 Break-Up Email

'I'll stop here so I'm not bugging you. If you're not interested, no worries. If you want to chat anytime, my calendar is here: [link]. Best — [Name]'

EMAIL TEMPLATE

SUBJECT: Recap from our call — [Their Business Name]

BODY:

Hey [First Name],

Great chatting today. Quick recap of what we discussed:

✓ Your goal: [their stated 90-day goal]

✓ Current blocker: [their stated blocker]

✓ Proposed solution: [your offer summary in 1 sentence]

✓ Investment: £2,000 setup + £147 per shown appointment

✓ Timeline: Live in 14 days

Attached: a Loom walking through what working together would look like, plus a case study of Carlos in FL who's running this exact system.

Whenever you're ready, here's the payment link: [link]

Any questions just reply — happy to help.

WHAT TO INCLUDE

5-Minute Custom Loom

Record a Loom AFTER the call (or before sending the recap). 'Hey [Name], wanted to recap what we covered + show you exactly what your setup would look like.' Show their hypothetical dashboard. Walk through case studies. Reference their specific business name.

WHY LOOM WINS

Personalised Loom videos convert undecided prospects at 3-4x the rate of email-only follow-up. They re-build the rapport you established on the call. They feel custom-built. They take 5 minutes to record.

→ The Day-8 Direct Ask

FORCING THE DECISION

SMS:

Hey [Name] — circling back from last week's call.

Where's your head at? Three options:

- 1. Ready to start — I'll send the payment link*
- 2. Need a few more days — happy to wait*
- 3. Not the right fit — just let me know and I'll stop bugging you*

Either way, just let me know. — [Name]

THE POWER OF OPTION 3

Giving them the explicit 'not the right fit' option forces a real decision. Many prospects who'd otherwise ghost will respond with the truth. Either you get a yes, a follow-up date, or a clean close — all better than ghosting.

→ The Day-12 Break-Up Email

BREAK-UP EMAIL TEMPLATE

SUBJECT: Closing the loop

BODY:

Hey [First Name],

I'm going to stop reaching out so I'm not in your inbox forever.

If now isn't the right time — no problem. If it ever becomes a priority again, my calendar is here: [link].

Best of luck with [their business],

[Your Name]

P.S. If I never hear back, I'll assume you've gone a different direction — no offence taken.

THE BREAK-UP MAGIC

Break-up emails get the highest reply rates of any follow-up. They trigger reactance ('wait, don't go!') in prospects who were leaning yes but procrastinating. 15-25% of break-ups convert into closes.

→ What NOT To Do In Follow-Up

DON'T

- 'Just checking in' messages
- Daily SMS bombardment
- Threaten / shame ('disappointed')
- Vague follow-ups ('any thoughts?')
- Give up after 2 follow-ups
- Drop the price to close

DO

- Add value each touch (case study, article)
- Space touches 1-3 days apart
- Stay positive and helpful
- Specific asks ('Ready to start?')
- Follow up 5-7 times min
- Hold price — extend terms if needed

→ Automating The Follow-Up Sequence

Build this as a GHL workflow that triggers when the opportunity moves to 'Proposal Sent' stage:

1. Trigger: Pipeline stage = 'Proposal Sent'
2. Action 1 (immediate): Send recap email + Loom link
3. Action 2 (24h): Send SMS check-in
4. Action 3 (3 days): Send value-add email
5. Action 4 (5 days): Send case study email
6. Action 5 (8 days): Send direct ask SMS
7. Action 6 (12 days): Send break-up email
8. Action 7 (15 days): Move opportunity to 'Lost' if no response
9. If they respond: Auto-pause workflow, manual takeover

BUILD THIS WEEK

Set Up The Follow-Up Workflow In GHL.

Build the 7-touch sequence in GHL workflows. Hook it to pipeline stage change. Test it with a fake opportunity. Once live, every undecided prospect automatically gets nurtured. Adds 20-30% to your monthly closes — passively.

END OF LESSON 12

Follow-Up = Automated.

Now the long-game — re-engaging prospects who said no months ago.
