LESSON

13 / 14

Yesterday's 'No' Is Tomorrow's 'Yes'

Most agencies put 'no' prospects in a graveyard and forget them. Top operators put them in a nurture sequence and convert 15-25% over the next 6 months. A 'no' today usually means 'not now' — not 'never.'

→ Why People Change Their Mind

- Their situation changes: revenue grew, partner approved, busy season ended
- Their other solution failed: the agency they picked sucked, referrals dried up, current marketing stopped working
- Your authority grew: they saw your YouTube videos, your case studies, your testimonials over months
- Time changed perspective: the problem they didn't think was urgent became urgent
- Competitor moved them: they saw a competitor scale and realised they need to act

→ The 90-Day Re-Engagement Sequence

Day 0 They Said 'No'

Acknowledge cleanly. 'Appreciate you being direct. If anything changes, you know where to find me.' Add tag 'cold-prospect' in GHL.

Day 30 Value Email #1

Share something genuinely useful. NO pitch. 'Came across this and thought of you given what you mentioned about [their goal].'

Day 45 YouTube Video Share

Share your latest YouTube content. 'Just published this — addresses something we touched on. Worth a watch.'

Day 60 Big Win Case Study

Share a recent client win in their niche. 'Just helped [similar business] hit £45K month — felt this would resonate.'

Day 75

Soft Check-In

'Hey [Name] — been a couple months. How's the [niche] business going? Anything change with [their goal/problem]?'

Day 90

Re-Engagement Offer

'Quick one — we've opened up 2 client spots this month. Given our last call, want to chat about whether the timing's better now?'

→ The Day-30 Value Email Template

VALUE EMAIL SCRIPT

SUBJECT: Thought of you with this

BODY:

Hey [First Name],

Been a month — hope [their business] is going well.

Came across this [article/video/case study] today and thought of you given what you mentioned about [specific thing from your call].

[Link or attached value]

No pitch — just thought it'd be useful.

RE-ENGAGEMENT SMS

Hey [Name] — quick one.

We've opened up 2 new client spots this month. Given our chat 3 months ago about [their goal], wanted to see if the timing's better now.

No pressure either way — just reaching back out since timing changes things.

Want to grab a 15-min call?

— [Name]

→ The Long-Term Nurture (Beyond 90 Days)

QUARTERLY

Newsletter Or Update Email

Every 3 months: send a 'state of [niche]' update with insights. Stays top-of-mind without selling.

BIG WINS

Case Study Drops

Major client wins in their niche. 'Sharing because you're in [niche].' Generates curiosity, not annoyance.

ANNUAL CHECK-IN

Direct Outreach

Once a year, personal direct outreach. 'Been a while — let's catch up on what's changed for you.' Surprising number convert.

→ Tag-Based Segmentation In GHL

Tag prospects appropriately for tailored nurture:

COLD PROSPECT TAGS

- ✓ cold-prospect — basic re-engagement queue
- ✓ cold-budget — they said no due to budget (use ROI-heavy content)
- ✓ cold-timing — they said no due to timing (use case studies)
- ✓ cold-competitor — they're with another agency (wait 6 months, then re-engage)
- ✓ cold-trust — they didn't believe it'd work (use proof-heavy content)
- ✓ cold-no-fit — genuinely not a fit (don't re-engage)

→ Re-Engagement Performance

 COLD PROSPECTS CONVERT	 AVERAGE RE- ENGAGEMENT WINDOW	 PEAK CONVERSION WINDOW	 COST PER RE- ENGAGEMENT
--	--	---	---

THE COMPOUND EFFECT

After 12 months of consistent re-engagement, you'll have a 'cold list' of 200-500 past prospects. Re-engaging that list quarterly produces 3-5 closes per month with ZERO new ad spend. Free revenue.

→ What NOT To Do

DON'T

- Weekly re-engagement (annoying)
- Aggressive pitching
- Generic 'just checking in'
- Ignore past objections
- Re-engage with same exact pitch
- Take silence personally

DO

- Monthly value, quarterly pitch
- Helpful, casual tone
- Specific reference to past conversation
- Address what changed
- Lead with new wins / case studies
- Patient long-game

→ Building The Cold List Workflow

1. Trigger: Opportunity moves to 'Lost' OR contact tagged 'cold-prospect'
2. Step 1 (30 days): Send value email #1
3. Step 2 (45 days): Send YouTube video email
4. Step 3 (60 days): Send case study email
5. Step 4 (75 days): Send soft check-in SMS
6. Step 5 (90 days): Send re-engagement offer SMS
7. Step 6 (180 days): Restart cycle with new wins/content
8. If response: Pause automation, manual handoff to you

BUILD IT THIS WEEK

Create The Cold Prospect Workflow In GHL.

Build the 90-day re-engagement workflow. Set it up to auto-tag every 'Lost' opportunity. Over the next 6 months, you'll generate revenue from prospects you wrote off. Set-and-forget gold.
